Detailed BART instructions:

From San Francisco International Airport, please ask somebody from the Kiosk how to get to Air Train if you don't easily see the signs. Get on Air Train and take Pittsburg/Bay Point train. After passing under the Bay, get off the train and transfer at 19th Street station in Oakland and take a Richmond train to Downtown Berkeley. The conductor should announce this transfer but it is often difficult to hear, so pay attention! Ticket costs $8.65.

From Downtown Berkeley BART head south on Shattuck Avenue toward Allston Way. Walk 290 feet and then turn right onto Allston Way. The Hotel is about 200 feet along Allston way on the left.
